Introduction

The international conference "China Studies as a Vocation: Celebrating Deborah Davis' 50-year contributions to scholarship and to CUHK" is jointly organised by the Department of Sociology and the Universities Service Centre for China Studies (USC) of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK), and sponsored by Faculty of Social Science, CUHK.

The conference will provide an opportunity both to discuss the state-of-the-art of China studies by debating the issues and theoretical frameworks to which Professor Deborah Davis has contributed: inequality, family, urbanization and migration, and consumption and civic culture, and celebrate her contributions to these research areas and to CUHK.

Date : 7 January 2018 (Sunday)

Time : 9:00 a.m. - 5:40 p.m.

Venue : Cho Yiu Conference Hall, CUHK
