Course Description

This course explores some of the major issues concerning the role of the youth and the problems confronting them in modern society. The nature of the conventional wisdom of the "youth problem" is critically examined, with the help of concepts and theories in sociology and related fields. This course is more concerned with understanding the nature of the phenomenon of problematization of youth and looking beyond common sense or public perception on current social issues related to the youth in modern society.

Learning Outcomes

- 1. Students will be able to capture the extent of youth problem in modern society.
- 2. By introducing a variety of sociological perspectives and concepts, students will be able to gain a more intellectual understanding of the nature and possible causes of youth problems.
- 3. Students will gain a fundamental understanding of how to apply sociological approaches to explain social issues relating to the youth.
- 4. Students will be able to critically evaluate the public perception of social issues relating to the youth.
- 5. Students will be able to reflect on their life experiences in modern society.

Assessment and Grading

The grade for the course will be calculated as a weighted average of the following components:

Participation	10%
News Commentary Report	30%
Team Presentation	20%
Final Paper	40%

Participation (10%)

- Attendance is important and I will highly compensate diligent and active students.
- Arrivals after attendance check will be counted as lateness—please kindly inform the instructor during the break in the middle of each class. Attendance after the break will not be counted.

News Commentary Report (30%)

- In this exercise, students are expected to demonstrate the understanding of the social science concepts and perspectives taught in this course and how they will help to understand youth problem. Assessment criteria will be provided.
- 2 newspaper clippings + 2 commentary.
 - News articles or any written material published since 2022.
 - 1 page (A4 size) limit per commentary.
- Due: June 13.

Team Presentation (20%)

- Students will be teamed up as a "buddy" group to choose one youth issue, study deeper into it, and deliver knowledges and unique perspectives to fellow students.
- Presentation day: June 20.

Final Test (40%)

• The examination will be held in the last class on June 30. The questions will cover lecture contents and readings. The venue TBA.

Grading

GradeDescriptors

- A Excellent: Outstanding performance on all learning outcomes.
- A- Very Good: Generally outstanding performance on all (or almost all) learning outcomes.
